JUNETEENTH

Freedom. Faith. Heritage

Juneteenth is a sacred reminder of freedom delayed, but not denied. On June 19, 1865, enslaved African Americans in Galveston, Texas finally received the news that they were free — more than two years after the Emancipation Proclamation had been issued. Today, we honor the sacrifices, strength, resilience, and faith of those who endured hardships while holding on to hope.

As believers, we recognize that freedom is not only historical, but spiritual. Through Christ, we are reminded that God is a deliverer, a promise keeper, and a source of strength for every generation.

"So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." — John 8:36

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for the strength and perseverance of those who came before us. Thank You for sustaining generations through trials and triumphs. Help us to walk in wisdom, unity, love, and freedom. Let our lives reflect hope, courage, and faith as we continue to grow together as Your people. In Jesus' name, Amen.
